Saint Patrick

Saint Patrick was early trained in Christian virtue in the bosom of a wealthy family in Britain. In his youth he was captured by pirates and sold into slavery in Ireland, where he suffered, by turns, hunger, cold, and ill-treatment. He endured all with heroic courage and gave himself up to the exercise of fervent prayer. Having regained his liberty, he hastened to a monastery in France, where he sedulously qualified himself for his future apostolate. When fully prepared he made his way to Rome, and besought the Holy Father to send him as missionary to Ireland. The Pope gladly consented, consecrated him bishop, and sent him forth with other evangelical laborers to the land of his bondage. For thirty years Saint Patrick labored in his beloved mission, and, with incredible toil, zeal, and devotion, converted almost the whole of Ireland to the Christian faith. The great apostle expired joyfully about the year 364.

The Prayer of St. Patrick

I arise today

Through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,
Through a belief in the Threeness, Through confession of the Oneness Of the Creator of creation.

I arise today

Through the strength of Christ's birth and His baptism,
Through the strength of His crucifixion and His burial,
Through the strength of His resurrection and His ascension,
Through the strength of His descent for the judgment of doom.

I arise today

Through the strength of the love of cherubim, In obedience of angels,
In service of archangels, In the hope of resurrection to meet with reward,
In the prayers of patriarchs, In preachings of the apostles, In faiths of confessors, In innocence of virgins,
In deeds of righteous men.

I arise today Through the strength of heaven; Light of the sun,
Splendor of fire, Speed of lightning, Swiftmess of the wind,
Depth of the sea, Stability of the earth, Firmness of the rock. I arise today Through

God's strength to pilot me; God's might to uphold me, God's wisdom to guide me,
God's eye to look before me, God's ear to hear me, God's word to speak for me,
God's hand to guard me, God's way to lie before me, God's shield to protect me,
God's hosts to save me From snares of the devil, From temptations of vices,
From everyone who desires me ill, Afar and anear, Alone or in a multitude.

I summon today all these powers between me and evil, Against every cruel merciless power that opposes my body and soul,
Against incantations of false prophets, Against black laws of pagandom,
Against false laws of heretics, Against craft of idolatry, Against spells of women and smiths and wizards,
Against every knowledge that corrupts man's body and soul.

Christ shield me today Against poison, against burning, Against drowning, against wounding,
So that reward may come to me in abundance. Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me,
Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left,
Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down, Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me,
Christ in the mouth of every man who speaks of me, Christ in the eye that sees me,
Christ in the ear that hears me.

[Note that people sometimes pray a shorter version of this prayer just with these 15 lines about Christ above. The conclusion follows below.]

I arise today Through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,
Through a belief in the Threeness, Through a confession of the Oneness Of the Creator of creation.

St Patrick's Breastplate

Christ be with me, Christ within me
Christ behind me, Christ before me
Christ beside me, Christ to win me
Christ to comfort me and restore me.
Christ beneath me, Christ above me
Christ in quiet, Christ in danger
Christ in hearts of all that love me
Christ in mouth of friend or stranger.

May Thy Salvation, Lord,
Always be ours,
This day, O Lord, and evermore. Amen.

Prayer to St. Patrick, Patron Saint of Ireland

Dear St. Patrick, in your humility, you called yourself a sinner, but you became a most successful missionary and prompted countless pagans to follow the Savior.
