Saint Januarius

Saint Januarius is the patron of Naples. He was the holy bishop of Benevento who, with two companions, suffered martyrdom in the year 305. It was during the persecution of Diocletian, and the three martyrs were cast to the lions in the amphitheater; but those ravenous beasts reverently refused to touch their helpless prey, and the tyrant was forced to order the bishop and his companions to be beheaded. The holy relics of Saint Januarius have been preserved in Naples from remote ages; and their presence and exposure during times of peril, pestilence, and threatened destruction from the eruptions of Mount Vesuvius have frequently delivered that city from danger. At stated periods the blood of Saint Januarius, preserved in a glass vial, becomes liquified at Naples in the presence of innumerable pilgrims.

From every eye He wipes the tear,
All sighs and sorrows cease;
No more alternate Hope and Fear
But everlasting Peace!

— Mother Elizabeth Bayley Seton

Life

St. Januarius (Italian: San Gennaro) was a bishop of Benevento in southern Italy during the early 4th century. He lived during the time of Diocletian's persecution of Christians.

Arrested for his faith, he was condemned to death. Tradition says he was thrown to wild beasts, but they would not harm him. Eventually, he was beheaded around 305 AD.

The Miracle of His Blood

The most famous sign linked to St. Januarius is the liquefaction of his blood.

A vial of what is believed to be his dried blood is kept in Naples Cathedral.

On his feast day (and sometimes other occasions), the blood miraculously liquefies, becoming fresh and flowing.

The people of Naples see this as a sign of his continued intercession and protection. When the blood fails to liquefy, it is often taken as a warning of coming troubles for Naples.

Traditional Prayer to St. Januarius O glorious St. Januarius, you faced death with courage, supported by your unshakable faith in Christ.

By the power of your holy intercession, may God protect us from all harm, deliver us from every evil, and strengthen us in every trial. Obtain for us the grace to remain faithful in suffering, steadfast in hope, and generous in charity. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Protection (Through His Miraculous Blood)

St. Januarius, whose blood has been a sign of God's mercy for centuries, intercede for us in our needs.

May your witness of faith guard us from spiritual danger and bodily harm. Pray that the Lord may protect our homes, our families, and our communities from disasters, sickness, and fear.

St. Januarius, protector and martyr, pray for us. Amen.

Prayer for Strength in Difficult Times Holy Martyr St. Januarius, you remained faithful in suffering and strong in persecution.

Help me to trust God when I am afraid, to cling to Him when I feel weak, and to believe in His goodness even in trials. Stand beside me with your courage, and obtain for me the grace to remain faithful until the end. Amen.

Short Invocation

PRAYER TO SAINT JANUARIUS

Oh Gennaro, brave of faith in Jesus Christ, glorious patron of Catholic Naples, looks upon us benignly and accepts our vows, that today we lie at your feet with total confidence in your powerful patronage. How many times have you run to help your fellow citizens, now stopping in the path of the destructive lava of Vesuvius, and now saving us from plague, earthquakes, famine and many other divine punishments that terrify us.

The perpetual miracle of the liquefaction of your blood is a sure and extremely eloquent sign that you live among us, that you know our needs and that you protect us in a singular way. Oh, we pray you to pray for us, sure that we will be answered; and saved from all the evils that oppress us from all directions. Save us from unbelief, and you will see that the faith, by which you have generously sacrificed your life, always, always produces fertile fruits of saints made among us. Amen.

COLLECT PRAYER
