Saint Magdalene of Canossa

The feast day of St. Magdalene of Canossa is celebrated on April 10, the anniversary of her death in 1835. Some sources and local traditions also celebrate her on May 8. She is the foundress of the Daughters and Sons of Charity

Born in northern Italy in 1774, Magdalene knew her mind—and spoke it. At age 15 she announced she wished to become a nun. After trying out her vocation with the cloistered Carmelites, she realized her desire was to serve the needy without restriction. For years she worked among the poor and sick in hospitals and in their homes, and also among delinquent and abandoned girls.

In her mid-20s, Magdalene began offering lodging to poor girls in her own home. In time she opened a school, which offered practical training and religious instruction. As other women joined her in the work, the new Congregation of the Canossian Daughters of Charity—or Canossian Sisters—emerged. Over time, houses were opened throughout Italy.

Members of the new religious congregation focused on the educational and spiritual needs of women. Magdalene also founded a smaller congregation for priests and brothers. Both groups continue to this day. Magdalene died in 1835. Pope John Paul II canonized her in 1988.

Saint Magdalene of Canossa was a noblewoman turned radical servant of the poor, a woman whose entire life became a mission of charity, education, and evangelization. Her story is one of perseverance, deep faith, and a courageous break from aristocratic expectations.

Her Calling: "To Make Jesus Known"

Magdalene felt drawn not to the quiet cloister but to active service among the poorest. Living through the upheavals of the French Revolution and Napoleonic invasions, she witnessed firsthand the devastation among the people of Verona.

Founding the Canossian Family

After years of discernment and overcoming family resistance, Magdalene left the Canossa palace in 1808 and moved into Verona's poorest district.

Prayer through the intercession of St. Magdalene of Canossa

O God, Father of goodness, you revealed your love to the humble and to the children, by raising in your Church, Saint Magdalene of Canossa to be the servant of the poor, grant that we may seek you above all things and serve the poor and the little ones in the true spirit of charity and humility. For Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for the intercession of Saint Magdalene of Canossa

Graciously look down, o Lord, on our present sorrows and necessities and, through the intercession of Magdalene of Canossa, grant that, renewed in spirit by the constant contemplation of Jesus Crucified and Mary, Mother of Sorrows, we may be found worthy to be heard in our petitions. Amen.

Our Father in Heaven, where You crown the merits of those who serve you faithfully on earth, show us the crown you have granted to Magdalene of Canossa by granting our humble prayer through her intercession.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Jesus Christ, Son of the Eternal Father, our Lord, you promised eternal happiness to those who serve you in the least of your brothers. Grant us the grace we ask you through the intercession pleasing to you, of Magdalene. She spent the whole of her life in the service of our brothers and was pleased to call the members of the charitable Institute she founded by the name of Servants of the Poor. Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end.

Holy Spirit, ineffable love of the Father and Son, you work miracles of grace in souls. Through that Charity which you put in the heart of your generous disciple, Magdalene of Canossa, increase in us through her intercession, your grace and grant what we are asking of you. Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end.

Our Lady of Sorrows, to whom our Foundress humbly dedicated her Institute, obtain for us the spirit of faith, hope and charity which animated your handmaid who now, by divine goodness, is your companion in heaven and grant that our humble supplications may be mercifully heard by the Lord. Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end.

Let us pray:

Father, you poured into the heart of Magdalene, our Foundress and Mother, the charity of the heart of Christ, your Son. Through her intercession, pour into our hearts too the gifts of your Spirit, so that, like her, we may glorify you in life by loving and serving your Son in our brothers. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

L. Our Mother Foundress,

T. Pray for us.
